Breaking the positioning of Sex Toy Hong Kong - an indispensable daily necessities

We hope to bring the unspeakable culture of adult goods or sex shop into Hong Kong. Broaden the horizons of Hong Kong people on sex products and sex culture, and rethink the definition of sex toy shops for people. It is no longer the old negative image that 性玩具 are dirty, lewd, and so on. We hope to create the impression of Sex Toy Hong Kong and transform it into a clean, generous and approachable image. As the old saying goes: "Food, sex, and sex." It means beautiful things, such as adult products or sex toys, and sex is human nature. So sFun doesn't need to avoid adult toy styles on the surface, and then secretly go to Sex Shop or online sex store to buy adult products. In contrast, online shopping stores for adult products in foreign countries are very common, and people will not feel embarrassed about sex toys. Or these closed minds should follow the open attitude of foreign countries, so that online shopping shops for sex products can bloom like flowers.

However, Hong Kong's sex culture is relatively conservative, and it is impossible to break the view of hk sex shop in a short time. But at least sFun could see more sex shops open. Looking up on the streets of Hong Kong, there are conspicuous signboards saying: adult products store, or Sex Toy HK, and there are many kinds of adult products online. This is the beginning of the gradual opening up of Hong Kong people to sexual culture. Compared with the past, the current sex toy shop is more open, has a bright and comfortable environment, and prominently displays adult toy recommendations. sFun HK brings the sex shop that has always been thought to be "under the stage" to the public's attention. At the same time, Hong Kong customers have also become bold with sex toys. One of the obvious examples is: in Donki's "sex toy area", behind a red curtain, there are at least 5-6 inside sightseeing, facing those sexy sex toys Supplies are whispering, some people even say that sex shops are just like happy sex shops, like a very lewd shop, although it is said to be happy, but this kind of joy is definitely not the joy of children, but the joy of adults, like a very obscene Splash shops (although we never thought of the pleasure sex shop thing as kinky splash). There are more sex shops in Hong Kong that can provide customers with shopping. Or occasionally on the subway, you will see advertisements for Japanese sex toys; some supermarkets and department stores have also begun to stock sex products and enhancement products. This is of course a good sign for the online adult products industry in Hong Kong. Even the SexFunHK sex toy store heard that there are some contraceptive or sex toy styles circulating among middle school students. They may discuss adult toys with a smiley look and dare not speak publicly. But don't these behaviors prove the opposite: the indispensability of sex toys?
